The Junior Class

Bob Yanko as president
 Chuck Gould to assist
 With this fine leadership
 How could things go amiss?
 While Joan Sicafuse keeps the books
 As best can be
 Ann Weese counts money
 In our treasury.
 To represent us on the council —
 Don't forget Fred Lyons and Suzy Dearing too.
 Who led the cheers?
 Our own peppy Judy and Sue.
 The prom was magnificent
 We'll never forget it—
 Football, basketball games, and
 Track meets too.
 With these memories—
 We look ahead so hopefully
 To next year — as Seniors

 Secretary-Treasurer Nancy Feher
 Student Council Kenneth Saunders

Here we are, at the end of another school year. Let's look back at the happenings of 1951-52.

First, sports. Our class was well represented in football, basketball, and track. Congratulations to all who participated. Special recognition goes to Tom Smolanovich for his fine tournament games. His scoring was highest in the county.

Second, school activities. Shirley Stiver, our Seminarian reporter, has done a commendable job. On the G. A. A. All Star team were Dorothy Snitzer, Diane Paul, and Shirley Stiver.

We were also represented on the Library staff and display committees.

Many of our classmates are in the band, orchestra, and the two choruses.

The Sophomore Class sponsored the Snow Hop and with concessions at games and dances, we have had a very successful year. It was work but we had fun. Looking forward to our Junior year, we remain the class of "54."

Freshman Class

OFFICERS:

President	Jim Justice
Vice-President	Linda Leech
Secretary-Treasurer	Lynne Stillson
Student Council	Carol Yanko

To whom it may concern:

With deep regrets we leave behind
 Our joyous Freshman year,
 Filled with lots of work and fun,
 And all our friends so dear.

Our boys certainly did us proud
 In all the sports they entered—
 We know in future years the team
 Around our boys will be centered.

On Tuesdays after school
 The girls had G. A. A.
 And on the All Star Team,
 Reisen and Stillson did play.

In the field of music, the Freshman Class
 Had no need of a helping hand,
 As we were well represented
 In the chorus, orchestra, and band.

Mrs. Christian could always count on our girls
 To keep the shelves all neat.
 And the honor roll could count on us
 To keep all classes beat.

Our school spirit is topped by no one.
 We have heard by a rumor—
 That the Freshman class is noted for
 Our great sense of humor.

And now you've heard the story of
 All that our class has done.
 And we hope that in our Sophomore year
 We'll also have lots of fun.

Yours truly,

The Freshman Class
 Loved by every lad and lass.

The Eighth Grade

We the class of "56" who are about to enter high school look back and review our last year in junior high with pleasure, for we were well represented in all school activities.

John Murine, our Student Council representative, did a fine job. Our basketball team did very well. We had four cheerleaders who led the cheers for our basketball team.

We also had a number of girls who helped on the library staff.

We are looking forward to our Freshman year and all the excitement that goes with High School.

The Seventh Grade

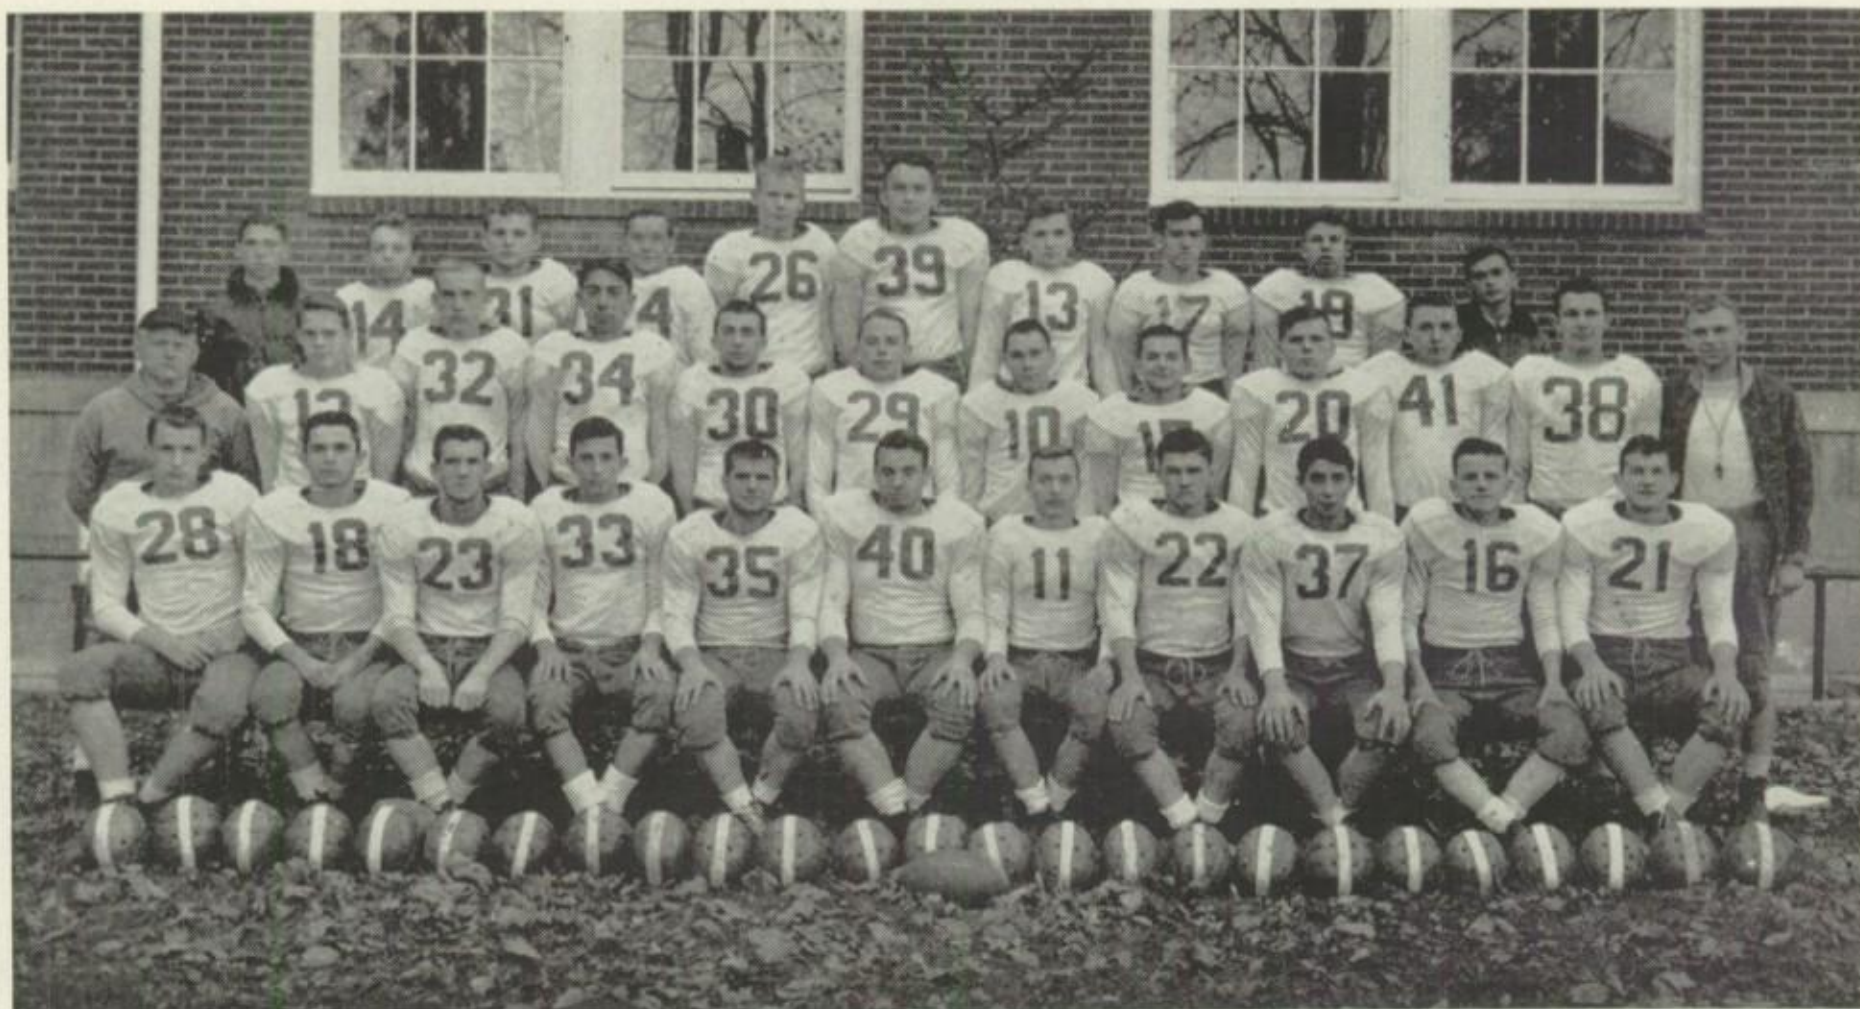

One, two, three, four, five, six, seven. Ninety-one seventh graders came into something not like heaven but into a new, exciting school life at Poland Seminary High School. The class of '57" will have five more busy, happy years.

We have had a hand in many affairs of the school. We had a very capable student council member, Carolyn Jones, and the Seminarian reporter was John Waller. In sports we were well represented with Larry Burkert, Jim Ekensten, Charles Jones, Jim Hunneke and Robert Allen. There were also quite a few boys out for track.

We contributed generously to the orchestra and band. That rounds out our activities but next year we'll be back working as hard as ever.

The Football Team

Poland finished the 1951 football season with four wins, two ties, and three losses. However, we now have a lifetime possession of the "old straw hat" by defeating Lowellville in the last game of the season. The team did quite well considering that there were only five returning lettermen.

This was Poland's last year in Class B football. Next year they will play a full Tri-County league schedule. We wish them the best of luck in this league.

The team wishes to thank the coaches, Mr. McKee and Mr. Eckhardt; the faculty; the Boosters' Club; the students; and all who helped this year's team. Poland's record was as follows:

Poland	0	Columbiana	0
Poland	6	Warren St. Mary's	26
Poland	6	Minerva	13
Poland	14	Newton Falls	7
Poland	6	East Palestine	21

2nd Row: Mr. McKee, coach: W. Seidner, S. Williams, J. Chambers, A. Robeson, manager.

The Basketball Team

The basketball team under the direction of Mr. McKee, the new varsity coach, finished the season admirably after a slow start. Although losing every away game during the regular season, the "Bulldogs" won seven out of eight games at home. In the tournaments the team did very well, beating Lowellville for the county consolation championship and not being eliminated until the final round of the Sectional Tourney. All told, the team had a good season in its last year in Class "B" competition, winning eleven games and losing twelve.

There were a number of records broken this year. Some of the more outstanding ones were: 1. Most points scored in one season. (1,223 points) 2. Most points scored in one game. (85 points) 3. Most points scored by an individual in one season. (334 points scored by Tom Smolanovich, a sophomore).

The Reserve Basketball Team

Coached by Mr. Paris, the Reserve Basketball Team had a highly successful season winning nine games and losing eight. On the home court the team lost only one game while winning seven.

Led by Bill Simon's 100 points, the team played against the toughest competition ever encountered by a Poland Reserve Team.

The team wishes to thank Mr. Paris and Mr. McKee for their expert help throughout the season.

Three of our players, Roy Wilson, Don Weyer, and Tom Smolanovich, were chosen on the All-County team. Tom Smolanovich was also chosen on the All-Tri-County first team. Jack Klinke and Fred Lyons, the other two regulars, along with John Chambers, Arthur Macklin, and Bill Seidner, also earned letters this year.

Two returning lettermen, Lyons and Smolanovich, plus quite a few stalwarts from the Reserve Team make next year's prospects look good.

Hi-Y

The Poland Hi-Y Club saw another successful year go by in 1951-52 with the following elected officers.

President	Al Schuette
Vice-President	Bill Nelson
Treasurer	Bill Luteran
Secretary	Ted Ostovich

Many interesting meetings were held during the academic year. Mr. Paul Luce, Dr. Martin T. Maghers, and Mr. B. Smith were among the speakers. Along with them we had a few movies and several gym nights. Not too many members attended the Hi-Y Christmas dance in Youngstown, due to the fact that the Poland High Dance was held the same night.

Ten members of the Senior class attended the Civic Day, March 11, which was very successful. A dinner held at the end of the year was enjoyed by all the H-Y members. This dinner was possible because of a successful dance after a basketball game.

The Hi-Y would like to thank our new adviser, Mr. Roberts, for the help he has given us, and we hope that next year's club will have as successful a year as we have had.

The Y-Teens

The Y-Teens opened this year with the annual recognition service for the Junior girls joining the club. The service was followed by a tea for mothers and daughters.

As a service project we made Thanksgiving favors for hospitals. We also conducted the Red Cross campaign, and worked jointly with the Hi-Y on the Polio campaign. Candy bars were sent overseas by contributions of club members.

The club gave two assemblies for the school, one being a Thanksgiving assembly with a movie entitled "One God." The other was a play, "The Ins and Outs," which was to dramatize effects of high school clubs and cliques.

Among our social activities were a swimming party, a Little Sister's party for the eighth grade girls, the Touchdown Toddle, and the Spring Formal which were sponsored with other clubs.

The club wishes to thank Miss McCallister and all of our officers for the splendid job they did this year in making our Y-Teen club one of the best.

The Student Council

The Student Council for the year 1951-52 was composed of the following students: Seniors—James Erskine, Joanne Zeiger, Gerald Murine, and Bill Luteran; Juniors—Bob Yanko, Fred Lyons, and Susan Dearing; Sophomores—Delores Buddie, and Kenny Saunders; Freshmen—Carol Yanko and Jimmy Justice; the Eighth Grader—John Murine; the Seventh Grader—Carolyn Jones.

James Erskine was elected President; Fred Lyons, Vice-President; Bob Yanko, Treasurer; Susan Dearing, Secretary.

This year the Student Council has endeavored to carry on the functions required of a Student Government. The Student Council was in charge of the management of the concessions at both the football and basketball games, and the selling of football and basketball season tickets. The Student Council cooperating with the Boosters Club, students and the faculty carried on a successful campaign this fall to raise money for the football team. As in previous years the Student Council put on their annual Talent Show.

The complete revision of the Student Council constitution has been started by a special committee comprised of students and council members. It is hoped that the project will be satisfactorily completed before the end of the school year.

The Library

This year has been one of the biggest and best our library has ever had. Through the remodeling we were able greatly to improve the efficiency and appearance of the room. Our work-room is a dream come true. By adding this, we now have space for storing more display materials, and shelving space for many reference magazines.

The library has twice as much floor space and several more sections of shelves, including a special rack for magazines and newspapers.

Outstanding improvements are the painting of the shelves contrasting to the walls and the linoleum on the floor. Both add to the atmosphere and appearance of the room.

The staff grew to a grand total of sixty-two, including both student librarians and the publicity staff.

We sponsored the concessions and a dance after a basketball game to raise funds for buying pins.

We have completed a very successful year and are looking forward to make the "BEST" even "BETTER" next year.

The Choruses

This year we've been working under decided handicaps, but even so, have made a good showing. The Mixed Chorus and the Girl's Glee Club presented a program at the annual Christmas Assembly. The Girl's Glee Club also sang at the P. T. A. Christmas Party.

The Mixed Chorus sang three numbers at the P. T. A. County Council Meeting at Princeton Junior High School, March 10. Both choruses sang in the annual Spring Festival held on April 25. The Mixed Chorus also sang at Baccalaureate and Commencement.

At the beginning of the year we elected Patsy McCrone as President of the Mixed Chorus and Doris Wylam as President of the Girl's Glee Club.

Great spirit has been shown by all members of both choruses this year in spite of our inactivity in presenting concerts. Progress has been evident each year. Under the capable direction of Mr. Lehto we have had a very successful year.

The Girls' Athletic Association

The G. A. A. opened this year with a party for the Freshmen following our first meeting.

The fall and spring sports were baseball and tennis. During the winter we devoted ourselves to basketball and volleyball. There were two main basketball games this year. The Junior-Senior game, played before the Fitch-Poland game, was a 47-29 victory for the Seniors captained by Judy Kropp. The captain of the losers was Judy McFarland. The All-Star teams met before the Poland-North Jackson game in what proved to be a one point win for the Blue team, headed by Janet Smith, over the White team, captained by Nancy Watson.

Shirley Namie was our President. Her board consisted of Jean Kerr, Vice-President Delores Buddie, Secretary and Janet Smith, Treasurer. Gail Johnson, Joan Wolfe, Judy Kropp, Elinor Kerr, Shirley Riesen, Susan Dearing, Sue Lovell, Shirley Stiver, Diane Paul, and Lynne Stillson completed the board.

The annual banquet was held at Bossone's on April 29, successfully completing the years activities.

We wish to thank Miss Harmon, our new adviser, for her assistance this year.

The Orchestra

Since musical events were few until near the end of the year when the new music room was completed, it seemed this year the orchestra practiced endlessly. The order of appearances of the orchestra was the Junior Play, the P. T. A., Christmas Party, Senior Play, and the Spring Concert. Last on the list was commencement.

The Seniors regret that they were unable to enjoy much of the new, dreamed-of music room. They hope that the future students of the music department will fully enjoy it.

There was a regional orchestra made up of about 125 students from high schools of eleven northeastern Ohio counties. Mr. Lehto directed the flute section in rehearsal. One representative from Poland participated in this orchestra which gave a concert at Kent State University in February.

Three students participated in a music contest held at Fitch. Since they received superior rating they entered the state contest. They were William Nelson, Fred Konzett, and Phyllis Scudder.

We spent another profitable year under the kindly and inspirational direction of Mr. Lehto. Mr. Lehto's ability in playing the flute was recognized in the fact that he was chosen to play in the orchestra for "Oklahoma" when it came to the Palace Theater in Youngstown.

The Band

Our band, under the capable direction of Mr. Lehto had a very successful year.

The band added to the school spirit by performing at all the football games and playing for the pep-assemblies.

As a final climax, the band played several numbers in the spring concert, April 25, honoring the grand opening of the new music room.

The Seminarian

A staff of sixty helped in writing, printing, and circulating this year's paper. Our editors were Shirley Witt and Shirley Namie, with Sarah Jane Carty as their associate editor.

The printing, on the whole, was very readable. The girls of the senior commercial class all helped in mimeographing and putting the paper together.

One issue featured articles about tuberculosis. Students wrote articles and cartoons concerning, "What Youth Can Do About Tuberculosis" as entries for the Ohio School Press Project. The entire paper was sent in to be judged.

Many thanks go to our advisors, Miss Johnson and Mrs. Ritz, for their help and advice in the past year.

The Senior Play

Poland is still laughing at the rollicking comedy "Men Are Like Streetcars," presented on March 28, 1952.

The plot centers around the Mason family which includes Mother (Sandra Hegg), Father (Eugene Juillerat), Sylvia, the older daughter (Natalie Towers); and Maudie, the younger daughter (Janet Bayer). Maudie decides that it's about time her sister Sylvia was getting married, so she plays cupid between Sylvia and Ted Felton (John Kummer), not realizing that her sister has always been in love with Jerry (Bill Seidner). Meanwhile, Maudie is also teaching all her techniques, lines, and systems on "how to catch a man," to her three girl friends, Alix (Joanne Zeiger), Julie (Judy Kropp), and Lysbeth (Sandy Brown), not to mention her timid cousin, Joy (Sara Leepard).

Although Maudie thought she knew just about everything "because of the actual experiences she'd been through," she was still having trouble with her own boy friend Davy (Arthur Macklin). Then to everyone's horror, Joy panicked the party and stole Davy and Chi, the handsome romeo, Jack Klink, right out from under everyone's noses. Just as things were getting hot, the local mothers, Mrs. White, (Judie Waller), Mrs. Allen (Marguerite Mershimer), and Mrs. Day (Jeannette Kibler) dropped in to let the Mason's know that they thought their daughters were being mistreated. Poor Margaret, the maid (Nancy Duer), seemed to be the only calm person around. Well, believe it or not, everything straightened itself out for the best. The moral of the story is "Men Are Like Streetcars," if you miss one, there's sure to be another along soon. I just mentioned it.

The Seniors wish to thank the entire cast, the wonderful job done by all the committees, and especially Miss Johnson, our very capable director.

The Junior Play

What happens when a meek, quiet boy of sixteen, who has always been protected by three maiden aunts, suddenly exerts himself? ? ?

You mean you missed it!

This question was answered on November 16, 1951, when the Junior Class skillfully presented the three-act comedy entitled "The Inner Willy."

As the curtain opened, Willoby Adam's (Bob Yanko) future has been planned thoroughly by his three maiden aunts, Aunt Hester (Lillie Panella), Aunt Louise (Jane Hill), and Aunt Olga (Susie Dearing).

Suddenly, Willy's inner self (Ann Weese), dressed in red underwear, appeared to teach Willy to exert himself.

As the play progressed, Willy found himself with four dates for the spring dance: The unattractive Marybelle (Judy Thomas), the twins Trudy and Janet (Judy Stanfar and Judy McFarlin), and Carol (Joan Sicafuse), for whom he has had a secret crush for several years.

Willy ran into difficulties when Carol's steady (Fred Lyons) found out about his crush. With the help of Mike (Ray Di Blasio) he ironed out all his problems and took Carol to the dance with everyone's blessings.

We wish to express our gratitude to Miss Esther Swift, who spent so much of her time and effort in the direction of the "Inner Willy."

Academic Contest

At Mt. Union College, Poland was well represented in the District Scholarship Tests by the following people: Algebra I—Carol Rolland, Susan Baxter; Biology—Sylvia Meiners, Carolyn Sharpe; English IX—Lynn Stillson, Sandra Lewis; Latin I—Philip Osborn, Lorene Oswald; English X—Helena McGarry, James Bordenkircher; Plane Geometry—Sandra Malone, Kenneth Saunders; Latin II—Emily Allen, Barbara Carlson; World History—Conner White, Ronald Moore; Advanced Algebra—Fred Lyons, Joann Coloutes; Chemistry—Robert Yanko, Charles Gould; English XI—Raymond DiBlasio, Joan Sicafuse; French I—Judy Stanfar, Ann Weese; American History—Sarah Jane Carty, Lillie Panella; English XII—Shirley Namie, Shirley Witt; French II—Marguerite Mersheimer, Judy Kropp; Physics—John Kummer, Phyllis Scudder; Senior Social Studies—William Luteran, Nancy Watson.
